

If We're In Luck

Kevin Purcell, Victor Kazan

*Ben! Ben! It's right grand to see you, Ben. I've missed you.
Loads. But you'll never guess what. I may be stayin' here at Castle Gillian.*

*I know. I couldn't believe it either.
Just imagine, us spendin' all day together!*

It's like a dream
But I'm not sleepin'
Sure as we're meetin'
So it must be true
I can't believe
I may be staying
Let's both keep praying
That I do

If we're in luck
They'll be agreein'
To have me bein'
Their new apprentice lad

It all depends
On what says my granda
But he'll agree with what says gran'ma
An' she'd say "yes"
Even though it would make her sad

She loves me like she was me mammy.

An' sure I am quite small
But I feel ten foot tall
An' I'll repay their faith in me one day
Though I've never been to school
Folks will see I am no fool

This is a chance few showmen lads could ever hope to get.

If we're in luck
I'll be your jockey
So proud and cocky
An' we'll always win

Next day or two
We'll start our trainin'
I won't mind if it's cold and rainin'
Or hot as hell
I'm so thrilled can't wait to begin!

*I best go back to the house now, before anyone sees I've gone.
See you on the morra. Night, Ben.*
