

Another World, Another Time

Kevin Purcell, Victor Kazan

MARY

When I was young you were my hero
I didn't need anyone else but you
And when I was lost
You came and found me -
Put your strong arms around me

GILL

I remember that too.

MARY

My childhood world was filled with joy
We'd canter round the glen my pony and me
From breakfast time until tea
I'd never want to play with any girlie toy

GILL

My childhood world was so much fun
Joe would pretend to be an outlaw on the run
That was the Joe that we all know -
A shootout would decide
Who was the fastest gun

MARY

That was the Joe that we all know

MARY

Each day we'd invent some brand-new game

And make believe a magic world
With its own secret name

MARY

The mem'ries come flooding back to me
And I'm a young girl once again -
Play-acting Joan of Arc
Hide-and-seek in the park
Chasing ghosts after dark -
Life was a dream.

GILL

Sure I did hair-raising things way back then -
Stalking lions in Zanzibar
Wearing a sheriff's star
Rallying a racing car through Ardagh -
Life was a dream.

MARY

Another world, another time...
Those halcyon childhood days
When life was so sublime
Long since gone
Still we're here...
September you'll decide to...
Go...I really don't know
Let's wait and see

Another...another world
Another time
Life was so sublime
They've long since gone
But we're still here...
But after September...

Not to worry, Gill, you'll always be a hero...
To me
